School seemed quite empty this week with lots of classes going out on exciting educational visits:

Y5 were at the Laing Gallery on Tuesday seeking top-tips from the resident Monet expert. The children will be recreating Monet's famous Waterlilies painting in their art lessons, using watercolour paint, so were very keen to talk to an expert on this subject. They were not disappointed!

Y4 are studying The Romans in history this half-term, so marched off to Segedunum Roman Fort on Monday to learn the boot-camp basics for a soldier in Emperor Hadrian's army.

Y3 spent the day in the spring sunshine at The Rising Sun Country Park on Tuesday. The class studied the spring foliage to help them with their science work on plants.

Y1 were searching for signs of spring too this week. The class investigate the spring flora and fauna at Washington Wetlands on Wednesday.

Reception class invited their parents and carers to 'Stay & Play' at school on Tuesday. After impressing their important guests with their rapid-recall of sounds and reading skills, both children and adults had fun writing in sand and goo – not forgetting those important hooks and flicks. Great work Reception!

There were lots of happy shoppers at the Winits Emporium this week.

They were in-it-2-winit!

Next week's Statement to Live By is I try to forgive others when they hurt me.

Next week's British Value is Tolerance

ATTENDANCE

“Central to raising standards in education and ensuring all pupils can fulfil their potential is an assumption so widely understood that it is insufficiently stated – pupils need to attend school regularly to benefit from their education. DfE

Pupils in Y3 are busy creating a model of the sea. Today, towering waves were added.

Q. How do you know the sea is friendly?

A. It waves!
