Wear something RED for

red nose day

on Friday 15th March

Thursday was World Book Day and at St. Vincent's everyone embraced this exciting literary theme by dressing-up as a character from a book: factual or fictional. It was a great day jam-packed with bookish busyness, including a parade in the hall. Congratulations to all our Book Token winners.

ATTENDANCE

“Central to raising standards in education and ensuring all pupils can fulfil their potential is an assumption so widely understood that it is insufficiently stated – pupils need to attend school regularly to benefit from their education.” DfE

Attendance for Spring1

Rec	98.6%

Some superb scores-on-the-doors this week and a stupendous 99.3% for our savvy SATs studying Y6 pupils. Fantastic!

Q. What do you get if you add 98% school attendance, 99% effort into your school work and a good attitude 100% of the time?

A. An exciting, successful and happy future! Keep-up the good work, Y6.

Everyone enjoyed our impromptu reading opportunities today.

Q. Why was the maths book always worried?

A. Because it had so many problems!
