Parents and carers joined Reception class last Thursday for Stay & Play.

This week has seen THREE separate traffic altercations (1 Uber, 1 car and 1 ASDA van) at the school gates (reports have been made to Uber and ASDA). From Monday, photographs will be taken of any car on the yellow zigzag lines and sent to Newcastle City Council who may issue a penalty charge notices (PCN) for breaching road traffic regulations. A small price to pay for keeping our children safe.

On Thursday, Fr. Jojo heard confession for our Y6 and Y5 Catholic pupils. The children were thankful for the opportunity to receive absolution during this holy season of Lent.

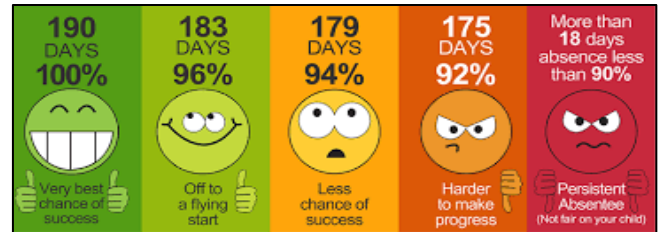

Miss Hilldrith has been putting her pupils through their paces in rehearsals for their sea-shanty dance routine. Consequently, the class was showtime-ready to perform for a packed auditorium at Whitley Bay Playhouse on Thursday. Encore!

Dancing is great exercise as well as being great fun.

Q. Why is tap dancing dangerous?
